

Voluntary Medicine Take-Back Locations in King County (as of December, 2011)

Some police departments and some pharmacies in King County are operating ongoing medicine take-back programs. Some additional police departments have participated in semi-annual DEA Prescription Drug Take Back one day events, which are expected to end once DEA issues new regulations.

